

THE HOUSE  WEST COAST

LOCATION: The House is located on Barbados' world renowned Platinum (west) Coast on a pristine stretch of white sand beach. Granley Adams International Airport is 40 minutes away and Bridgetown, Barbados cosmopolitan capital is just a 30 minute drive.

THE PROPERTY: A haven of privacy and serenity, this intimate boutique hotel blends chic design and minimalist grace with the essence of the Caribbean to create a wonderful relaxing refuge that is sophisticated yet informal and understated. The hotel has subtly mastered the art of close attention to detail and superb service with many fine touches such as, a 24 hour Ambassador Service, Jet-lag massage, Champagne breakfast daily and their beach Ambassador Service. For food lovers, found directly next door is Daphne's which provides a unique culinary experience with its fine Italian menu.

Complimentary water sports are available to all guests, including windsurfing, boogie boarding, kayaking, waterskiing, tube rides, banana boats and Hobie Cat at Tamarind Cove, The House's adjacent sister property.

ROOMS: The House offers an intimate escape where cares float away as you rest upon a cloud of plush pillows and pristine comforters, smooth lines of teak and curved lanterns reflect the free-flowing forms of a beachside landscape - where the island's perfection becomes your backdrop for sunny morning breakfasts and tropical evening cocktails. Tranquil, adults-only environs ensure you can never feel more together than you do right here. 34 Jr. and one bedroom suites provide modern simplicity and comfort framed by scenic ocean or romantic garden views.

LITTLE GOOD HARBOUR  WEST COAST

LOCATION: Situated on the north-west coast of Barbados is to be found Little Good Harbour, on the site of historic Fort Rupert, dating back to the 17th century. The shopping amenities of Speightstown are only a short drive away while you are just 20 minutes from Holeytown and approximately 1 hour to the airport.

THE PROPERTY: This superb 'all-suite' beachfront hotel residing in a quiet fishing village conjures up images of the old Barbados and is an undiscovered secret even by many Barbados regulars. Fort Rupert is the main focal point of this delightful resort and is blended tastefully in to the property while local Caribbean art, Balinese furnishings and the local landscape are reflected throughout the décor of the 21 suites. The fishing boats moored on the coastline add to the tranquility of this oasis. The hotel's water's edge restaurant, 'The Fish Pot', has become a popular spot for food aficionados. Guests can enjoy the quiet at Little Good Harbour, yet have easy access to the activity and excitement of the fashionable and exclusive West coast, just 15 minutes away.

ROOMS: The resort is comprised of 21 luxury villa suites comprising six 3-bedroom Vineyard suites, one 3-bedroom Fort suite, one 2-bedroom Fort suite, three 2-bedroom suites and ten 1-bedroom villa suites. Apart from the suites incorporated in to the original fort, the other buildings which house the suites are delightfully designed as Caribbean-style guest cottages and very in keeping with the surrounding environment. All suites have a separate living room with French doors leading out to a terrace or balcony. All offer air conditioning (bedroom only), ceiling fans, hair dryers, iron and ironing board, stereo with CD and cassette, TV, DVD player (American DVDs only) and VCR.

SPECIAL OFFERS: Summer Offer: Stay 7 nights and receive the following extras complimentary: welcome Champagne in your suite plus a sail on board 'Cool Runnings' catamaran for the day for 2 persons with lunch (not private). Offer valid 01 May - 31 October 2009; for 2 adults sharing a 1-bedroom suite, minimum stay 7 nights. Honeymoon Offer: Honeymoon couples will receive a bottle of French Champagne, as well as a free suite upgrade to the 2-bedroom Fort Suite subject to availability on arrival. Offer valid year round.
